

I have appreciated New Jersey's Do Not Call list. I like not being called by businesses. I also like the option of doing business whth companies of my own choice when I choose to contact them. Companies that are helpful and fair will get my return business more than those that solicit.